

2008 Directory of Minnesota Organic Farms

If you wish to be listed, please complete and return this application before November 15, 2007.

Certified Organic Products Only

Please check any/all certified organic crops or livestock you may have available for sale. This directory is only updated every few years, so consider listing all crops in your rotation, even if you don't grow them every year.

First Name

Last Name

Farm or Business Name

Telephone

Fax

E-mail

Street

City/Town

State

Zip

County

Name of certification agency:

Certified since approximately what year?

About how many certified organic acres do you farm?

CROPS AND FORAGES

- Barley
- Buckwheat
- Corn, Yellow #2 (food grade)
- Corn, Yellow #2 (feed grade)
- Corn, Blue
- Field Pea
- Flax
- Hay
- Oats
- Soybeans - Feed
- Soybeans - Food Grade
- Soybeans - Tofu Type
- Wheat - Hard Red Spring
- Wheat - Hard Winter
- Wheat - Soft
- Other crops or forages (list in "Other" box)

FRUIT

- Apples
- Berries - Raspberries
- Berries - Blueberries
- Berries - Strawberries
- Grapes
- Other fruits (list in "Other" box)

LIVESTOCK

- Dairy Replacement Heifers
- Dairy Cattle
- Cattle for Slaughter
- Hogs
- Lambs/Sheep
- Goats
- Poultry - Broilers
- Poultry - Layers/Eggs
- Other livestock (list in "Other" box)

VEGETABLES

- Broccoli
- Carrots
- Greens/Salad Mix
- Onions
- Peas
- Potatoes
- Pumpkins
- Squash
- Sweet Corn
- Tomatoes
- Seedlings/Transplants
- Herbs
- Other vegetables (list in "Other" box)

OTHER:

Note, this directory is designed for farms who sell to each other and to processors, traders, retailers, and other intermediate or large scale buyers.

For selling direct to consumers: Minnesota Grown Program
www.minnesotagrown.com or 651-201-6510

For selling to restaurants and food service: Heartland Food Network
www.mnproject.org/food-heartland.html or 651.645.6159

Minnesota farms only*