

Protect Surface Water

Know the Minnesota Department of Agriculture Best Management Practices for Atrazine and Acetochlor

Install filter strips and establish buffer zones for streams, sinkholes and tile inlets. Cost-share assistance may be available.

Setbacks may be mandatory when using products containing atrazine.

The majority of acetochlor and metolachlor applications on corn in Minnesota include atrazine.

Always read and follow the label.

For more information on the herbicide best management practices:

Talk to your dealer, crop consultant or UM Extension Educator, visit www.mda.state.mn.us/herbicidebmps,
or call the Minnesota Department of Agriculture at 651-201-6141