*MN Statute 2023, 21.81 Subd 3. Agricultural Seeds. "Agricultural seeds" includes the seeds of grass, forage, cereal, oil, fiber crops, seeds of vegetables grown for processing, and any other kinds of seeds commonly recognized within this state as agricultural or field seeds, lawn seeds, or mixtures of those seeds, and may include noxious weed seed when the commissioner determines that the seed is being used as agricultural seed.

SECTION 4 Seed Program Notices and Acknowledgements

Social Security Number Collection Notice: Minnesota law requires that all licensing authorities collect the social security number or Minnesota business tax identification number of all applicants (Minnesota Statutes, Section 270C.72). Applicant information, including social security numbers and Minnesota business tax identification numbers, will be provided to the Minnesota Department of Revenue upon request. Under the Federal Exchange of Information Agreement, the Department of Revenue may provide the data to the Internal Revenue Service. Social security numbers and Minnesota business tax identification numbers may be used to deny the issuance, renewal or transfer of a license in the event an applicant or licensee owes the Department of Revenue delinquent taxes, penalties or interest.

Tennessee (Privacy) Notice: The information provided on this application will be used to assess the applicant's eligibility to hold a permit. Applicants are not legally required to provide MDA with the information requested, but only completed applications will be considered for approval. All applicants are required by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 21.891 to provide the information requested in this form; incomplete or inaccurate applications may result in a delay in the processing of an application or the denial of a permit. The information provided will be accessed only by MDA staff that have a business need to see the data, the state auditor, legislative auditor, or by court order.

As an applicant in the Seed Permit Program, some data you provide on this application (including social security numbers, if applicable) are classified under Minnesota law as private or nonpublic. Data classified as private or nonpublic will be viewed and used only by MDA employees and contractors that require access to perform a valid work assignment. Entities that the MDA may legally share this information with include, but are not necessarily limited to, the United States Department of Agriculture, the Minnesota Department of Management and Budget, the Minnesota Department of Administration, and the Minnesota State and Legislative Auditors. In certain situation, the MDA may share this information with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies and other government entities charged with protecting human health and safety such as the Minnesota Department of Health. In the event of a legal action, the MDA may share this information with the Minnesota Office of the Attorney General and Minnesota or federal courts. The information may also be proved to any party in a valid court order or federal subpoena.

SECTION 5 Required - Workers' Compensation

You must provide acceptable evidence of compliance with the Workers' Compensation Insurance Law (Minn. Stat. § 176.182).

If you are self-insured, attach a copy of the exemption order from the Commissioner of Commerce authorizing self-insurance.

SECTION 6 How Do I Exercise Trade Secret Protection?

1. Clearly mark "Not Public" or "Confidential" on any material or portion thereof that in your opinion would, if made public, compromise trade secrets.
2. Submit a written letter that justifies trade secrete protection. In your letter you must:
 - Demonstrate that you or your organization supplied the marked data;
 - Describe how the marked data is the subject of efforts by you or your organization that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy; and
 - Describe how the marked data derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use.

This letter should be provided at the time the data is supplied in order to exercise your rights immediately. You may attach the letter to your application. If you submit the letter after already submitting your application, address the letter to Data Practices Coordinator, Plant Protection Division, Minnesota Department of Agriculture, 625 Robert Street North, St Paul, MN 55155-2538. If you have already submitted such a letter regarding this data, you do not need to submit another unless you are asking for protection of additional data.
